

The Bradford Antiquary

The journal of the Bradford Historical and Antiquarian Society

Name:

Address:

.....

.....

Postcode:

Tick this box if you wish to receive details of the Society's activities:

I wish to purchase the following copies of The Bradford Antiquary

Each copy of the older eight issues below costs £2.00 for members, £3.00 for non-members, plus postage (50p per copy). A pack of all eight issues costs £10.00 for members, £17.00 for non-members, post free.

Issue	No. of copies	Total cost
Second Series
Part XXXIX	£.....
Part XXXXVI	£.....
Part XXXXVII	£.....
Third Series
Number 3	£.....
Number 4	£.....
Number 5	£.....
Number 6	£.....
Number 7	£.....
Pack of all eight of the above issues		£.....

Each copy of the four latest issues from the third series below costs £3.00 for members, £5.00 for non-members, plus postage (50p per copy).

Number 8	£.....
Number 9	£.....
Number 10	£.....
Number 11	£.....
<hr/>
Total Postage		£.....
<hr/>
Total		£.....

Please make your cheque payable to Bradford Historical & Antiquarian Society and send it with this form to:
Hon. Editor, 22 Holden Lane, Baildon, SHIPLEY. BD17 6HZ

Outline contents

Part XXXIX (1958): Armorial glass at Bolling Hall; a Civil War hand grenade; two Bingley postscripts; the West Riding Foreign Affairs Committee; Bingley Volunteers in the Napoleonic War; an early Bradford bank note.

Part XLVI (1976): Wilfrid Robertshaw, M.A.; the Manningham Mills strike; the Bradford Protestation return; John Nicholson, unpublished poems; Bradford Friendly Societies in the 1790's; Index to Volume IX.

Part XLVII (1982): Mid-Victorian Bradford; the Exley family of Rawdon; an 18th century magistrate, Samuel Lister; old Bradford charities; the Bradford Lime Kiln Company; the Protestation of the commons, 1641.

Number 3 (1987): Saltaire; the Low Moor explosion; the Workers' Educational Association; the Milligans of Dumfriesshire and Yorkshire; Philip Snowden.

Number 4 (1989): The Richardsons at Bierley Hall; Bradford's Western boundary; the Raynors of Burley; the Great Bradford Exhibition of 1904; Robert and James B. Cartwright; Carr House Farm; a Wibsey medical family; the Masons Arms; occupations in 18th century Bradford.

Number 5 (1990): Textile and Society in Bradford and Lawrence, USA; the Social-Democratic Federation; the Independent Labour Party; old photographs of Wapping; building plans of Little Germany; the Gledhill family; Alfred Coe.

Number 6 (1992): Bradford Triennial Music Festivals; pubs in Mid-Victorian Bradford; old photographs of the Conditioning House; beer brewing in Bradford; enemy air activity over Bradford.

Number 7 (1999): The Bradford Canal; lost villages of Baildon Moor; James Warburton, apothecary; the Memory Bank (oral history); history on the net.

Number 8 (2003): A ceremonial sword; Judy Woods; Sir George Scott Robertson MP; Cleckheaton's medical provision; a wartime fireman's memories; the Booth family of Wibsey; education in Saltaire; the railway to Cullingworth; schooldays in Wibsey; Bradford Moor memories.

Number 9 (2005): William Cudworth, a 19th century local historian; Littlemoor & Harrowins (Queensbury); Bradford Eye & Ear Hospital; Bradford Canal; Music in Bradford; Parson Bull & Miss Curren; Some Bradford Hotels; Workers' Housing in Keighley; Frederick W. Eurich; A Milliner's Apprentice.

Number 10 (2006): The Battle of Bradford: Riots against the New Poor Law; The Mystery of Wibsey Manor; The 1867 Bradford By-Election; Bradford's Municipal Baths and Wash-Houses; Haworth Wool-Combers; John Wood: Bradford's Father of Factory Reform; Robert Milligan, Draper and Merchant; Did Allerton have a Mediaeval Mill?; The Victorian Club Culture of Keighley.

Number 11 (2007): Fake or genuine? The 1772 Map of Bradford and Horton; Dr J.H. Bell and Woolsorters' Disease; Wibsey Chapel: The First Four Hundred Years; The Woolsorters' Baths and Gardens; 'Classic Cards', Bradford: The History of W.N. Sharpe Ltd; John Wood: John Wood: Bradford's Father of Factory Reform. Part 2: The Hampshire Years; A Remarkable Family: The Cravens of Cullingworth.